Gala Judging

Grafton Chamber of Commerce has put together an independent panel of judges. Each entrant will be visited by a judge. Each judge will review entries prior to visiting a business. On their visit they will talk to a nominated business representative. They will be asking the following questions:

1: Why did you enter the category you did?

2: What would you say has been your greatest accomplishment in your business over the past twelve months? (This can be winning a big client or can be managing to keep going despite major hurdles and setbacks.)

3: When you look back over your time in business, the challenges you have faced, and the successes you have had, what has been the biggest lesson that you have learnt?
